Graduate Student Grant Writing Series

Finding and securing research funding is increasingly important. This series will introduce graduate students to the grant proposal writing process and provide tips and best practices for securing that first research fellowship or grant.

W170 BENSON BUILDING
12:00 PM – 12:50 PM
LUNCH PROVIDED

MARCH/8
Overview of the Grant Proposal Process

Representatives from the Harold B. Lee Library and Research Development will give an overview of the grant proposal process including resources available for graduate students. This overview will be followed by a panel of graduate students who have been successful at obtaining fellowships and other sources of external funding. They will share their experiences and give advice on how to create the best grant application.

MARCH/13
Finding Funding with Online Tools

BYU has subscriptions to two online funding databases that graduate students can use. Research Development will demonstrate how to use these two databases to find funding opportunities. This session will be held from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. in 2233 HBLL.

MARCH/15
Internal & External Funding for Graduate Students

Representatives from the Graduate Studies Office, the National Scholarship and Fellowship Office, and Research Development will discuss internal and external funding opportunities for graduate students.

MARCH/22
Writing a Successful Grant Proposal

Research Development will provide graduate students with tips and best practices for writing a successful grant proposal.